1st, I hope that you and Frank are having a wonderful time in Mexico. You both deserve it.

2nd, My stepfather, Dr. Carl von Seutter, an optometrist in Magee, is retiring after practicing for 54 years, all in Magee. Is there any type of recognition for his service that can come from the Governor's office? He is also a WWII veteran and a relative of the von Seutters who have been an important part of Jackson's history, including Jackson's first photographer, first jeweler, and the owners of the Gibbs-vonSeutter house in Raymond.

"Doc" is a very special person and I am trying to think of something special and unusual to do for him to honor him and his retirement.
