Two employees to retire

Two veteran Co-Lin Natchez employees will be retiring soon.

Diana Martello, assistant Dean for Vocational-Technical Instruction, will leave her position at the end of the semester after working at Co-Lin Natchez for 22 years. And, Louise Watkins, a maintenance worker, will be retiring after working for Co-Lin Natchez for 10 years.

Fresh out of the box

Electronics instrumentation instructor Richard Newby, right, and Clint Stevenson, a Mississippi River Corp. employee, inspect part for the new Foxboro trainer recently shipped to Co-Lin Natchez. The system, when it is up and running, will make the Natchez campus one of only three training sites in the nation on such equipment, which is used in industry to control assembly lines and other major processes. The equipment was bought with assistance from an advisory council of which MRC is a member.

NEWS AND NOTES

DEC does well at state competition

Five members of Delta Epsilon Chi won honors at state competition Feb. 26 and 27. Karlyn Ritchie won first place, and Chip Williams earned fourth place in hospitality marketing; Donna Rae Hays won fifth place in travel and tourism marketing; Amy Bankston won sixth place in apparel and accessories marketing and Mary Norris won sixth place in food marketing. Ritchie now will compete at the national level in May. Congratulations to you all.

Literary Celebration seeking helpers

The Natchez Literary Celebration, which is co-sponsored by Co-Lin, is seeking volunteer helpers from staff and students. If you can, give of your time for the June 4-6 event. Co-Lin Natchez has been a strong supporter of this event.

Some Stafford loan checks available

Accounts Receivable Manager Carolyn Harper says most Stafford Loan checks are ready for endorsement and processing. Students whose Social Security numbers are highlighted on the posted list may bring Co-Lin ID or driver's license with them to the Business Office beginning Monday, March 2.

A student endorsing for the first time this school year at Co-Lin must fill out an "entrance interview form" and view a 15-minute loan film prior to processing. Refund checks will be issued within two weeks of an endorsement to those with credit balances.

PTK needs books for kindergartens

Phi Theta Kappa is seeking books to give to area kindergartens as part of the community-wide Project Read. Boxes have been placed around the campus. Also, a $1 donation will be accepted.
