Dear Jamie:

Congratulations! As Governor of the state of Mississippi, I am honored to extend to you best wishes on the joyous celebration of your Bat Mitzvah. The goals you have obtained will certainly be remembered by all. You will look back on this accomplishment as one of the many steps in your future. The commitment on your part to study the Torah is a huge endeavor. The smiles you will bring to your family & friends will be shown with pride.

You have achieved a major step forward for the sake of your ancestors and the future of Judaism.

Shalom, Congratulations, and Mazol Tov! Best wishes for your future. You have indeed reached a huge milestone in your life.

Very truly yours,

Ronnie Musgrove
