Dear Christine,

On June 21, 2001 at 6:58pm, the world received a blessing from heaven in the form of a new child. With this child came a renewed sense of hope for the family, their friends, and even the world. This child, as small as she was, had the greatest potential -unscathed by self doubt- to fulfill God's plans. That child was you Christine, and even today, as you read this letter, that potential still lies within you.

I encourage you to look deep within yourself to find the courage to meet life challenges with the faith of a child and the strength of a woman. I would like to wish you the best of luck in your endeavors and pray that God will guide you as you embark on each new journey throughout life. May He guide your footsteps and may you always keep your innocence and optimism- to smile at life when it throws challenges your way, and at the world as you begin a new day.

Please allow me to thank your father for sharing this great event with me-the beginning of your life. Congratulations and best wishes for an incredible journey.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE
