Dear Paula:

Thank you for taking the time to write my office. I am happy to answer the questions that you sent via email.

The Mississippi governor is regarded as a weak governor since he/she has no input on the state's budget and has no cabinet. The governor's role may be changed from weak to strong by amending the Mississippi Constitution of 1890.

If I may ever be of assistance in the future, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE
