February 16, 2000

Dateline Houston - Justice For All, Parents of Murdered Children, and all participants in the BENETTON BE GONE campaign are extremely appreciative and grateful, Sears made a decision to pull all Benetton merchandise from 400 Sears stores nationwide after Benetton launched an ad campaign which featured interviews with death row inmates. Sears positive and quick action shows utmost respect and compassion for the victims of the United Killers of Benetton as well as all homicide victims, surviving family and friends.

Dianne Clements, President of Justice For All stated "Justice For All always believed and trusted that Sears would reject the Benetton campaign and the merchandise. Clearly our trust was warranted and Sears deserves our support as consumers and neighbors."
