The date for The 2001 National Forum on Education Policy is fast approaching, and, as an ECS Commissioner, you are critical to making this meeting a success. The Forum, scheduled in Philadelphia for July 18-21, promises to be a dynamic one, with Roderick Paige and Marian Wright Edelman among our keynote speakers, many sessions on the hottest education topics and experts from around the country available to interact with you on issues ranging from accountability to vouchers.

If you have not made your room reservation yet at the Loews Philadelphia Hotel, please do right away. Cut-off date for the special ECS group rate is JUNE 15. Please call 215-627-1200 or fax to Reservations Department: 215-231-7310.

JUNE 25 is the deadline for receiving an "early-bird" discounted registration fee for The National Forum on Education Policy. If you have not yet submitted your registration form and fees to ECS, please see the ECS Web site for a form or contact Dara Piltz at 303-299-3621 or dpiltz@ecs.org for assistance or further information.

The National Forum area of the ECS Web site is being updated frequently, so please visit regularly to see what's new:
