Psalm 34:6

This poor man cried out, and the Lord heard him,
And saved him out of all his troubles.=20

When we cry out to God, He can't stand it, He must respond to our crying = out. It's like any good parent would feel if their child was in distress = and calling out to them. (Jonah 2:2) I suppose crying out to the Lord = may be the quickest way to get His attention. God's ears are open to = hear the cries of His people in trouble. God is in the business of = saving us out of all our troubles. I want to stress the word ALL. Some = of us have it down to an art form for getting ourselves into more = trouble than we can dig ourselves out of. So many roads lay before us = that lead to trouble. Trouble is the middle name for many. Trouble seems = to be the second nature for some and the first nature for others. I = thank God that He can be depended on when the chips go down on any of = us. Anyone can call on the Lord God Almighty in a time of trouble. It is = the Lord who saves us. Our greatest obstacle is our pride not allowing = us to turn to Him admitting wrong and our unwillingness to forgive = ourselves. Some of us are too hard on ourselves. These people will be = too hard on other people as well. We must soften up before the Lord. = Allow Jesus to save you. Call on Him today.=20

Bo Sullivan
