

Congressman Ronnie Shows
Mississippi's 4th Congressional District

Press Release
For Immediate Release

May 23, 2001

Contact: Burns Strider
202-225-5865, office
202-225-5886, fax
202-225-4271, cell
burns.strider@mail.house.gov

Congressman Ronnie Shows to Hold TOWN HALL Meetings in Jackson and Natchez to Hear Concerns / Ideas and Discuss Energy and Fuel Costs

Shows cites rising fuel and energy costs, increasing concern in Mississippi and Nation for need to hold important Town Hall Meeting

"The debate in Washington is crucial, but even more important is for me to hear first-hand the concerns, comments and ideas from the people of Mississippi concerning the fuel and energy issue." - Congressman Shows

What: Energy and Fuel Costs Town Hall Meetings

Who:
Congressman Ronnie Shows (MS-04)
Fuel and Energy Policy Experts

Tuesday, May 29, 2001 / 6:00 - 8:00 p.m.
Jackson, Mississippi
Smith-Robertson Museum / Downtown
528 Bloom street

Wednesday, May 30, 2001 / 4:00 - 6:00 p.m.
Natchez, Mississippi
Council Chamber / 115 South Pearl Street
Downtown Natchez

Topics:
Audience Discussion and Ideas
Federal Policy
Why is this happening?
Long range and short term ideas and goals
Fossil Fuels, Bio-Fuels, Coal, Solar, etc
Dependence on other nations

"These will be important Town Hall meetings," stated Congressman Shows. "We are facing a rising tide of fuel and energy costs that calls for discussion and action. The debate in Washington is crucial, but even more important is for me to hear first-hand the concerns, comments and ideas from the people of Mississippi concerning the fuel and energy issue."

-- ### --