

Eudora Welty Collection Archival Internship

Archives & Records Services - Manuscript & Image Collections

Compensation: $2,000.00

Application deadline: August 27, 2024

The Mississippi Department of Archives & History (MDAH) is seeking a Eudora Welty Collection Archival Intern to serve in the Manuscript and Image Collections section of the Archives and Record Services division. This internship offers unique opportunities to learn about archival preservation and conservation, as well as processing, arrangement, and description. Working under the direction of the collection curator, an intern will engage in the archival processing of materials as part of the Eudora Welty Collection.

Master of the short story, Eudora Welty (1909-2001) left an indelible mark on twentieth-century American literature and is acknowledged as one of America's greatest authors. This internship is designed specifically to work with the Eudora Welty Collection at MDAH, the premier collection of Eudora Welty materials in the world and one of the most varied literary collections in the United States.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Learn basic archival principles and put them into action.
- Review assigned archival collection materials for conservation concerns.
- Identify and arrange collection into series as agreed upon with the supervisor.
- Create folders and box inventory content.
- Generate finding aids related to box content.
- Present a final report to the archival staff.

Requirements:

- Strong organizational skills and attention to detail.
- Interest in Eudora Welty, Mississippi history, literature, and/or photography.
- Excellent oral and written communication skills and willingness to ask questions.
- The ability to work independently and collaboratively with MDAH archival staff.
- Archives, Library Science, History, or Liberal Arts students preferred.

The Manuscript and Image Collections Team believes that internships are a learning experience and will provide training for all projects.

Time Commitment:

This internship spans from September 16 to December 16, with a minimum requirement of 140 hours. The working hours are flexible, from Monday to Friday, between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. The specific schedule will be established in accordance with the availability and mutual agreement between the intern and MDAH staff.

How to Apply:

Submit an online application through the MDAH website by August 27, 2024.
