

A LECTURE SERIES OF THE MISSISSIPPI
DEPARTMENT OF ARCHIVES & HISTORY

DEC-JAN HISTORY IS LUNCH SCHEDULE

November 19—Fred Mangrum, Mary Emmons, Georgia Bankhead, Leo Turner, and Robert Smith
"Sixty Years of Head Start."

November 26—No History Is Lunch
(Thanksgiving week)

December 3—Ted Atkinson, "Developing a Cultural Region: Mississippi in the TVA." Book sales and signing to follow.

December 10—Justin Randolph, "The Force of Law: Policing and Resistance in Jim Crow Mississippi." Book sales and signing to follow.

December 17 to January 7—No History Is Lunch

January 14—Aram Goudsouzian, "Everybody Should Have Their March: Civil Rights and Black Power in 1966." Book sales and signing to follow.

January 21—Brittany Myburgh, "Art as Archive: the History and Legacy of the Jackson State University Art Collection."

January 28—Charles Dew, "Why Mississippi Left the Union: Answers from the Secession Commissioners." Book sales and signing to follow.