

A LECTURE SERIES OF THE MISSISSIPPI
DEPARTMENT OF ARCHIVES & HISTORY

FEB-MAR HISTORY IS LUNCH SCHEDULE

February 4—Kevin Brown and Jacqueline Martin, "Hilda Casin's Legacy: Preserving McComb's Civil Rights History Through Education and Community Memory."

February 11—Christina Thomas, "One of the Sleepless Ones: The Autobiographies of Mrs. Winson Hudson."

February 18—Kamel King and Dexter Allen, "Jacktown: The Sound of Soul, Grit, and Legacy."
Book sales and signing to follow.

February 25—The Hill Country Project, "The Freedom Struggle and Local People in Benton County." Book sales and signing to follow.

March 4—Wayne-Sanderson Farms, "Mississippi Made: Wayne-Sanderson Farms."

March 11—Chandra Wise, "Unsung Pioneers: The Women Who Gave Gospel Its Voice."

March 18—Governor Haley Barbour, Mark Keenum, Leslie Southwick, Brad White, and Nehemiah Flowers, "Life and Legacy of Thad Cochran."

March 25—Michael O'Brien, "The Tougaloo Nine's Stride into History."
Book sales and signing to follow.